

ESCCAP Emerging Vector-Borne Diseases 2016: Epidemiology and Clinical Management

DEFINITIVE LIST OF TOPICS AND SPEAKERS

Canine anaplasmosis and ehrlichiosis – similar infectious agents, different diseases -Barbara Khön (Veterinary Faculty of Berlin, Germany)

Lyme disease: state of the art – Reinhard K. Straubinger (University of Munich, Germany)

Canine babesiosis: epidemiology and control of old and new species – Gad Baneth (Hebrew University, Israel)

Canine and human leishmaniosis: status quo in Europe – Guadalupe Miró (University Complutense of Madrid, Spain)

Wolbachia, doxycycline and macrocyclic lactones: new prospects in the treatment of canine heartworm disease –Laura Kramer (University of Parma, Italy)

Fleas and flea-borne diseases: questions and facts – Patrick Bourdeau (Veterinary Faculty of Nantes, France)

Feline leishmaniosis: is the cat a small dog? – Maria Grazia Pennisi (University of Messina, Italy)

Feline vector-borne diseases – Michael Lappin (Colorado State University, USA)